(c) Recovery of loans granted by Agricultural Banks through Revenue officers as Land Revenue.

Summary of discussion.—(c) It is prayed that arrangements may be made for recovering the loans granted to raiyats by the Agricultural Banks in the same manner as arrears of Land Revenue.

Reply of Government.—This cannot be done.

(d) Agricultural Banks not beneficial to poor and ignorant raiyats.

Summary of discussion.—(d) Agricultural Banks do not benefit poor and ignorant raiyats to the extent intended. Some other means of saving such raiyats from the clutches of sowcars who demand exorbitant rates of interest may therefore be devised by Government. Poor persons should be given loans by Amildars direct.

Reply of Government.—This cannot be done. Loans for land improvement and for irrigation wells are largely given. Agricultural Banks too receive all reasonable help. It is not possible for Government to do anything more.

Subject No. 174

Teachers of grant-in-aid, &c., schools to be permitted to avail themselves of the State Life Insurance Scheme.

Summary of discussion.—Teachers employed in Grant-in-aid and Municipal Schools may be allowed to participate in the benefit of the State Life Insurance Scheme.

Reply of Government.—This cannot be done. The scheme is intended solely for the benefit of Government servants paid out of General Revenues, not out of Local Municipal or Special Funds.

Subject No. 177
Transfer of Taluk and Forest subordinates.

Summary of discussion.—Taluk officials as well as subordinates of the Forest Department should not be allowed to stay in any one place for long periods so as to become permanent settlers of that place. Occasional transfers of such officials and subordinates are necessary in the interests of raiyats.

Reply of Government.—Transfers are effected according to exigencies of public service.

Subject No. 178
Separate accommodation for caste Hindus in Railway trains.

Summary of discussion.—Separate compartments for 3rd class European and Eurasian passengers are provided in the Railway carriages, besides female compartments. It is prayed that similar separate accommodation may be caused to be provided for caste Hindus also.

Reply of Government.—Noted.

Summary of discussion.—It is desirable to frame rules for the compulsory Vaccination of children.

Reply of Government.—Noted.

Subject No. 182
(a) Dasara holidays.

Summary of discussion.—(a) The Dasara holidays may be extended to fifteen days, so as to permit of officials attending Mysore going back to their stations after the close of the festivities.

(b) Public holidays.

Summary of discussion.—(b) The recent orders of Government curtailing the number of Hindu holidays especially the Dasara holidays are felt as a hardship and should therefore be reconsidered.

Reply of Government.—(a) & (b) This will be reconsidered.

Subject No. 183
Revision of Judicial, Educational and Engineering Establishments.

Summary of discussion.—The Judicial, Maramat, Engineering and Educational establishments may be revised in the same way as the Taluk and District establishments which were recently revised.

Reply of Government.—Noted.

Subject No. 184
Judges of Chief Court to go out on tour of inspection.

Summary of discussion.—It would be conducive to the better administration of Civil and Criminal justice throughout the State, if the three Judges of the Chief Court were required to undertake annual tours of inspection by turns.

Reply of Government.—Noted.

Subject No. 185
Dowan and Councillors to go on Tour of Inspection.

Summary of discussion.—Tours by the Dewan and Councillors are likewise desirable.

Mr. C. Srinivasa Rao prayed for more frequent tours by the Dewan.

Reply of Government.—Noted.

Subject No. 186
Introduction of a uniform system of measures.

Summary of discussion.—The present measures used for measuring grains, &c., are not uniform and therefore give room for fraud. They should be replaced by cast-metal measures as has been done in the Excise Department.

Reply of Government.—The subject is under consideration.

Subject No. 187
Purchase by Government of rice and ragi grown in Mysore and sale of the same in famine times to people.
